

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is simply irresponsible.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. Partisan politics by media outlets is eroding the public trust in any and all information provided by theirs and other news organizations.

Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them.